

Linux Command Reference

Getting Help	System and Process Management man - an interface to the system reference manuals	uname - print system information apropos - search the manual page names and descriptions	w - shows all login sessions on the computer info - readable online documentation	whoami - print effective userid whatis - display one-line manual page descriptions	date - print or set the system date and time
--help or -h - help information for a specific command	cron - daemon to execute scheduled commands free - display amount of free and used memory Managing Files and Folders	which - locate a command ls - list directory contents	uptime - displays how long the system has been running cd - change current directory	ps - a snapshot of running processes pwd - display full path of current directory	top - dynamic real-time view of running processes mkdir - create a directory	kill - send a termination signal to a process id rm - remove a directory or file	killall - send a termination signal to a process name cp - copy a file	bg - lists jobs running in the background mv - move a file	fg - brings background jobs to the foreground touch - create or update a file	echo - display a line of text cat - create or update a file	- redirect output from one command to another more / less - output the contents of a file	& - run one command immediately after another head - output the first part of a file	exit - close or logout of the current terminal / session tail - output the last part of a file	!! - run the last command ln - create links between files	history - display list of all commands run in the session find - search for files grep - search for patterns in files	Networking chmod - change file and folder permissions	ping - test connectivity to computers on the network tar - archive and compress files	ip - manage network interface and protocol information ifconfig - manage a network interface Managing Applications	route - manage the IP routing table dpkg - package manager for Debian	dig - DNS lookup utility rpm - package manager for Red Hat	wget - download file apt-get - APT package handling utility	ssh - OpenSSH remote login client curl - transfer files over a network